Indiana SADD held its first-ever Indiana SADD/ Orange Ribbon Celebration in 2002 at the Indianapolis Convention Center. Since then, Indiana SADD has offered this annual one-day conference to SADD chapters and other leadership groups throughout the state. The goal of this April event is to celebrate the conclusion of Orange Ribbon Week and the prevention efforts made by SADD chapters and other groups throughout the school year. Please celebrate with us this April—networking with others around the state and fanning the flame for students to continue in their efforts.

SADD Olympics

To encourage team unity within your SADD chapter, the Indiana SADD SLC would like to invite you to participate in the SADD Olympics. Please come dressed as a “team,” and be prepared to compete as a team. Your SADD chapter will earn points for different events throughout the day, and a winning team will be declared during closing ceremonies, winning a very special gift!

Drug Free Rally

Welcome back to the SADD Celebration the Drug Free Rally! You and your students will enjoy the humor of comedian, Craig Tornquist and the energy of music duo, Isaac/Joseph. Also, a former inmate, Kyle Cranmer and chalk artist, Matt Lewis will share their stories with you. With so much to offer, the Drug Free Rally has something for everyone!

Team Teach

Attendees will have the chance to break off into smaller groups, learn a little more about Indiana SADD and the opportunities available, and exchange ideas with other schools. Please bring 25 copies of your activity handout(s) to share with others.

SADD Annual Awards

Please log onto www.indianasadd.org and click on the “SADD Chapters” page for our annual award applications.

Quick-Click Challenge

Before arriving in April, select your team of four for the Quick-Click Challenge. You may do this by holding a local Quick-Click Challenge or by another process of your choice. Sign-ups will be available on the Celebration day.
